JULY 2016

July is Family Reunion Month

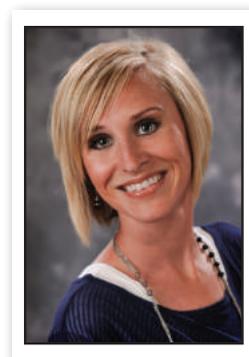

At reunions with three or more generations attending, some people have no idea who most of those at the reunion are or how they are related to them. Here are a few ideas on how to get people mingling and talking to each other.

- Color-coded T-shirts or name tags. Imprinted shirts that designate you as part of "Joe's clan" or "Mark's kid" are nice, but cost money. Nametags that are color coded for various branches of the family can serve the purpose.
- Photo projects. Encourage people to bring historic photos of family members, churches, cemeteries and old family homes. The photos should have a name and date on the front and the owner's name on the back.
- Story hour. Designate a time for people to share stories from family history. Mention on the invitation or at the sign-in table that there will be a time to share stories.
- Quiz project, prize. Print out a quiz about family members in history. Ask things like great-grandmother Jones' first name, which aunt had twins, and in what state Uncle Joe was born? Give a prize for the most right answers.
- Take a tour. If the reunion is in a town that is important to family history, arrange a tour of homes, churches, and courthouses where people bought marriage licenses, or the park.

Losing Richfield's Best Specialist

I'm sad to say that Jamie, our Richfield Specialist, has left our company to be closer to family as her kids grow up. We, and our Central Utah patients, will miss her greatly but wish her well on her next adventure.

For those patients that visit us in Richfield, Trista is still in the office and waiting to help you hear all the sounds of life. Don't worry, we have a great specialist coming to fill Jamie's shoes, Justin Bateman, of Panguitch, Utah will now be taking over right where Jamie left off. He has all of Jamie's notes, and has a way to communicate directly with her in regard to your specific situation should the need arise.

We look forward to beginning some upgrades to our facility in Richfield to make your experience more enjoyable and to better serve the patients of Central Utah. Don't worry, your care and our relationship with you will not be sacrificed at all; we will continue our mission as the only full-time hearing care specialists in the Five County Area in Central Utah.

More fun than should be humanly possible!

AND OUR PATIENT OF THE MONTH IS. . .

Kent Harmon, a great patient, a better friend, and an amazing person. Kent is relatively new to our family of patients, but he has been a tremendous advocate of our services and the results experienced. We can say wholeheartedly that we enjoy seeing him, playing a round of golf, or just sending a few text messages back and forth.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR REFERRALS

There's no question that we have the BEST patients on the entire planet. Our practice is built on word of mouth advertising and I'd like to thank the following people who were kind enough to recommend our services to their friends. Thank you soooo much!

Your HOROSCOPE

ARIES: Tenacity and determination will take you far in life. But sometimes it's good to leave room for serendipity. Incidental or accidental occurrences can give you an idea that will be useful in another area.

TAURUS: There are times when you feel like walking out on a relationship, but think twice. It's not that unusual a feeling. Consider all the benefits and blessings of staying and you could change your mind.

GEMINI: So you are having an intense desire to just play all day. Fortunately, it's a great time to take a break from work. Shoot off some fireworks. Renew your energy.

CANCER: If you reflect on your past mis-takes and accomplishments, you could find the answer to the situation foremost in your mind now. Focus on your successes and how you achieved them.

LEO: The balance of power in your work-place is somewhat complicated. Work on doing your job well instead of trying to figure out who to please. Higher-ups will recognize your upbeat attitude.

VIRGO: A case of the envies has plagued you recently. Get over it and get on with your life. Your personal life can make you happier than turning your attention outside.

LIBRA: The rest of 2010 will feature some endings and some beginnings. As one door closes, another is likely to open. Welcome the new and leave the ending doors closed.

SCORPIO: Isn't it time to liven up your home? A new coat of paint can do wonders for your outlook whenever you come home. Invite people to your place and be proud.

SAGITTARIUS: Though it's difficult to imagine that anyone's way is better than your own, think about it. Transitions at work are inevitable. At home, your partner has ideas that merit your consideration.

CAPRICORN: Too much conversation can end up clouding the situation. Re-evaluate what you want, what they want, and how you can come to a win-win conclusion.

AQUARIUS: Things are falling into place now. You might have to make an effort to recognize that positive direction. Life is good, but it's not perfect!

PISCES: The impact you have on other people makes you feel worthy and attractive. Keep that impact on a constructive note and you'll succeed in helping others while helping yourself. Nice work.

The Lighter Side

The Lighter Side... "About That Sign"

"What happened?" said the hospital visitor to the heavily bandaged man sitting up in bed.

"I decided to take a ride on the roller coaster. As we came up to the top of the highest loop, I noticed a little sign by the side of the track. I tried to read it but I couldn't make it out. So I decided to go around again, but we went by so quickly I still couldn't read it. By now, I was determined to read that sign so I went round a third time. As we reached the top, I stood up in the car to get a better view."

"And did you manage to see what the sign said this time?" asked the visitor.

"Yeah. It said 'Don't stand up in the car.'"
